

FEBRUARY 11, 1817.

Read twice and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A Bill.

For the relief of Anthony Buck.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of
2 the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That
3 Anthony Buck shall not be made responsible for the penalty of 4 a bond, executed in the year one thousand eight hundred and 5 eight to the United States, by a certain James Stuart, alias
6 James A. Stewart, master of the schooner Sally Barker Wind-
7 sor; and, the said Anthony Buck, conditioned for the trans-
8 portation of a cargo of flour in said schooner from the port of 9 Fredericksburg in Virginia, to the State of Massachusetts:
10 Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to 11 release the said James Stuart from any penalty by him incurred
12 to the United States.
